Introducing the Deskless Productivity Cloud

It can be complicated to manage your deskless workforce—but your employees and customers don't need to know that. The Deskless Productivity Cloud from Skedulo allows any company in any industry to plan and engage with their deskless workforce.

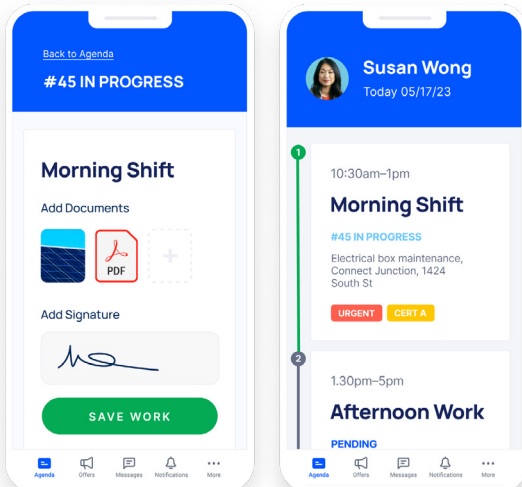

Skedulo helps organizations greatly simplify scheduling, gain visibility into and control over job scheduling and workforce utilization, equip employees with an intuitive app to help them perform their day-to-day operations, provide actionable analytics on their workforce, and reduce operating costs. The Skedulo Deskless Productivity Cloud delivers mobile workforce management and field service capabilities across four functional areas: Manage, Engage, Analyze, and Configure & Extend.

Execute work more efficiently

- Empower mobile workers with the Skedulo iOS & Android apps, enabling them to accept work offers, view work and client details, plan and execute work, document details, and communicate with colleagues both in the field and in offices
- Enables workers to securely capture photos, field notes, surveys, signatures, and more on the go.

Extensible, flexible, scalable platform

- Extend your existing systems and workflows with the high extensibility, flexibility, and configurability of the Skedulo platform
- Scale to meet complex use cases and extreme volumes of appointments across multiple sites, job types, worker types, and customer needs
